

eProduct Offerings from ASCENT

eBooks

Containing the same content as the corresponding printed guides, our eBooks provide users with a personal, color electronic copy of the guide, complete with hands-on exercises and downloadable class files.

eLearning Bundles:

We offer content from our learning guides bundled into convenient, online learning courses. Available through annual subscription, eLearning Bundles allow learners to complete fundamental through to advanced-level courses from any location with access to the Internet—no software downloads required!

With access to your eLearning Bundles for one full year, and available any time of day, you can learn whenever it's convenient for you.
